Tuition Includes:
- Fully accredited, US university-level courses (12-15 credits for Fall or Spring terms depending on the program, 12 credits for Full Summer terms, and 6 credits for Summer I, Summer II, or Summer Venice term)
- Classroom materials fees for all studio classes except Batik, Jewelry Design, Serigraphy, and Weaving, which are paid in euros directly to the studios (see Additional Fees Once in Italy below)
- All required class field trips and museum entrance. Cities regularly visited by art history, studio art, or design classes include Fiesole, Pisa, Lucca, Siena, San Gimignano, San Sepolcro, Ravenna, Rome, Arezzo, Urbino, Carrara, Milan, Bologna, Venice, and Naples (Italian travel restrictions permitting)

In addition to the above, tuition for SACI Graduate Programs Includes:
- 7-day per week access for studio art majors to graduate studios
- 7-day per week access for MA in Art History students to a study space near the SACI Worthington Library in SACI’s main building
- Special Graduate Seminar field trips to exhibitions, galleries, museums, and contemporary art fairs, and visits with curators or to studios of practicing artists, including, for MFA and MA students, an annual trip to a major city outside of Italy

Activity Fee Includes:
- A full orientation program
- Organization of optional extra-curricular social and cultural events
- Guest lectures
- Weekly evening open life-drawing sessions
- Italian film nights
- Gallery exhibitions and student exhibitions
- "Survival Italian" classes with native-speaking Italian instructors (Fall & Spring terms)
- Participation in weekend field trips as space allows
- Welcome and farewell parties

Student Services Fee Includes:
- Pre-departure advising by SACI staff in US and Italy
- 7-day per week access to SACI
- 24-hour emergency phone service and trained health and security staff on campus at all times when SACI is open
- Assistance with medical and other personal needs
- Assistance with health insurance and police registration
- Internet access in SACI’s educational facilities and gardens (WiFi)
- Free black and white printing from student computers
- Library services – use of the SACI Worthington Library, containing over 13,000 volumes, 32,000 images, 50+ periodical subscriptions, numerous videos and DVDs, and library computer access

Housing Fee Includes:
- Currently furnished and equipped apartments with kitchens, living rooms, and double or single bedrooms within walking distance to SACI in the historic center of Florence. (All apartments are registered in accordance with Italian law. SACI apartments also meet strict health and safety standards and are covered by fire and third-party liability insurance.) A reasonable use of utilities is also included.
- Full-time housing staff available to assist students with housing emergencies and repairs
- Internet access (WiFi)
- Washing machines and linens (except towels)

SACI Apartments in Venice
- Double or single rooms (sheets & towels provided) with bathrooms and kitchenettes in a university residence hall in the center of Venice. Utilities included.
- Communal areas (sitting, study, and entertainment and fitness rooms, cafeteria/bar, and terrace)
- Internet access (WiFi)
- Weekly cleaning and change of linens
- Self-service laundry, vending machines

Homestays in Florence (Fall and Spring)
- Double or single rooms (sheets & towels provided) and a shared bathroom in an Italian host family’s home in the historic center or in the outskirts of Florence. A reasonable use of utilities is also included.

Additional Fees Once in Italy May Include:
- Visitor’s Permit of Stay fees (Fall and Spring terms only). U.S. and non-European students are required to apply for a Visitor’s Permit of Stay and pay a fee of €118 to the Italian authorities. Note: This fee is not required in Fall 2020 for undergraduate study abroad students as the term is exceptionally less than 90 days.
- A Field Trip Deposit of €50. This deposit is refunded in Florence at the end of the term unless a student fails, without an excused absence, to participate in a field trip for which he or she has signed up. (All terms)
- Housing fees. Students staying in SACI housing between terms will be charged additional fees. Please refer the Housing Information on the SACI website.
- Materials fees for the following courses: Batik (€120), Jewelry Design (€150), Serigraphy (€150), Weaving (€80). Students must bring or purchase in Florence their own personal art supplies such as paper, paint, pencils, brushes, canvas, film, sketchbooks, etc. (see the SACI website for specific course material lists).
- Photocopy card (25 copies for €1.50). Photocopies made at SACI require this photocopy card. Printing in black and white from student computers is free of charge.

SACI reserves the right to increase fees without prior written notice.
